OVERVIEW

Export Exchange 2020 will be uniquely focused on connecting international grain buyers with U.S. suppliers.

This event is expected to be attended by 200 international purchasers and end-users of coarse grains and related products and an estimated 300 U.S. producers and agribusiness representatives. The U.S. Grains Council is sponsoring the attendance of targeted international trade teams from more than 30 countries.

The conference content itself will address critical issues facing U.S. exports and seek to educate and build awareness of the benefits of U.S. corn, sorghum, distiller’s dried grains with solubles (DDGS) and other products.

Please join us for this international event by participating as a conference sponsor.
