GENERAL COMMENTS

DDGS prices broke the past few week's trend lower and traded $10/MT higher so far this week. The rally in soymeal futures plus renewed international buying interest helped support values. The DDGS/Kansas City soymeal ratio at 0.67, equal with last week's ratio and above the three-year average of 0.48. The DDGS/cash corn ratio is at 1.06 this week, up from 1.05 last week and equal to the three-year average of 1.06.

On the export market, brokers and exporters report that Barge CIF NOLA values are up $11/MT for June through August as buyers stepped up following the recent declines. FOB Gulf offers are up $13/MT in tandem with strength in the barge market and fresh export interest. Container offers are up $2-5/MT this week on gains in ocean freight. The average offer for 40-foot containers to Southeast Asia is $425/MT for June-August shipment.

OCEAN FREIGHT MARKET

I have not seen a significant uptick in cargo demand this week, but dry-bulk paper traders in the FFA market tried to keep last week's rally going and managed to close the week with small gains. Physical markets have followed the FFA trends but are feeling toppy presently. General support in freight markets is still fueled by concerns over the small 2022-2023 new vessel order book for dry-bulk ships and poor logistics due to Asian port congestion.

Container markets continue to deal with difficult port logistics in Asia and North America and are having growing concerns over the U.S. West Coast labor contract negotiations. Source: O'Neil Commodity Consulting
